

What's the difference between an oath and an affirmation?

An oath is a promise made before a higher power, while an affirmation is a secular pledge made on personal honor. Both are legally binding and carry the same weight under law.

- When are these used? They're commonly required for affidavits, depositions, and other legal documents where truthfulness is essential.
- Do I need to bring anything? Just a valid photo ID. We'll guide you through the rest with professionalism and care.
- Can I choose between an oath or affirmation? Absolutely. We respect all beliefs and offer both options to suit your preference.
- Is this service available remotely? Yes! We offer mobile, online, and in-person notarization to fit your schedule and location